

One Economy Corporation Presents

247townhall.org and
A National Townhall Discussion

Alleviating Poverty In America: Ideas & Solutions

Friday, June 22, 2007
11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Renaissance Pere Marquette Hotel

817 Common Street
New Orleans, Louisiana 70112

● what is it?

One Economy Corporation will invite community members, policy experts and public officials to be part of a national dialogue about alleviating poverty in America and join us for the launch of 247townhall.org.

Our national town hall discussion will focus on problems and the solutions of poverty in America. The audience will participate in this conversation live in New Orleans and be joined by guests in Atlanta, GA and Portland, OR, along with our national audience.

247townhall.org is a unique civic engagement website. It uses technology to make it easy for people to share ideas, discuss topics and learn about issues. 247townhall.org will also host live news-making events from time to time.

● who will be involved?

The community: residents of New Orleans,
and citizens from around the U.S.

Renowned policy experts

National and local public officials, including
2008 Presidential candidates

● why?

To showcase 247townhall.org, the first civic engagement website, and to jumpstart a national dialogue on the crisis of poverty in America. One Economy is inviting the citizens of New Orleans to engage in this long-term discussion in particular, because they have unique insight into what we should be doing as a nation to address concerns of poverty in the future.
