

National Townhall Discussion and Live Webcast on Alleviating Poverty In America on June 22, 2007. Participate Online At www.247townhall.org

Join One Economy for the first national, live webcast at www.247townhall.org . "Alleviating Poverty In America : Ideas & Solutions," live from New Orleans on June 22, 2007, 9am PDT/11am CST/ 12pm EDT.

On Friday, June 22 at 9am PDT/11am CST/ 12pm EDT, One Economy will webcast a townhall meeting live from New Orleans, LA. One Economy's CEO, Rey Ramsey, will facilitate the national discussion between local and national policy experts, policy makers and citizens from across the country. Senator Hillary Clinton , Former U.S. Senator John Edwards , Governor Mitt Romney, the Honorable Jack Kemp , Mayor Douglas Palmer , and the President of the United States Conference of Mayors will offer their thoughts on poverty alleviation in the 21 st century. Political correspondent James Carville will join the conversation live along with Former Congressman Billy Tauzin participating via telephone.

Those who watch the event online can join the live conversation by sending questions to guest speakers. To participate, simply go to www.247townhall.org and you will see a large banner for the live event. Click that banner and it will take you directly to the webcast and interactive features related to the event. You can view the site without registering, but if you would like to post content, please take a moment to register. To register, go to www.247townhall.org and click "Join Now" in the upper right corner. The event is the beginning of a 30 day dialogue that will occur on 247townhall.org around the subject of poverty.

247townhall.org is a new web portal that will aid citizens' at all economic levels in getting involved in policy and government. 247townhall.org is the first social media application focused on helping technologically-isolated Internet users increase their awareness of and engagement in important social, political, and economic issues, and advocate for positive change in their communities.

247townhall was developed by One Economy to offer innovative media tools to its target audiences and further realize its mission of maximizing the potential of technology to help low-income people improve their lives.