

Tax help for Quincy residents

Mobile sites are set up until the end of the week

The Patriot Ledger

Posted Feb 17, 2009 @ 05:40 AM

QUINCY — Quincy Community Action Programs will offer two programs to assist residents during tax season: One Economy Mobile Tax Centers through the end of the week and the Volunteer Tax Assistance Program, which is in its fifth year.

The services, co-sponsored by United Way of Massachusetts Bay and Merrimack Valley, the Wal-Mart Foundation and One Economy, are free.

The mobile tax sites will be: 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday at Quincy Career Center, 152 Parkway; 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Wednesday at Germantown Community Training Center, 435 Palmer St.; 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday at Quincy Community Action Programs, Inc., Learning Links Technology Center, 1509 Hancock St.; 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday at Manet Community Health Center, 1193 Sea St.; and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday in the atrium of Thomas Crane Public Library, 40 Washington St.

The Volunteer Tax Assistance Program will be available by appointment through April 11, Thursdays from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. and Saturdays 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

For more information or an appointment, call 617-657-5345.